ARRESTED FOR WHITE SLAVERY

W. F. Ramsay of Gadsden
Ala., Wanted by Federal Authorities

Had $671 and .32 Automatic
Pistol on Person When Arrested.

W. F. Ramsay, of Gadsden, Ala., was arrested at Jasper Friday by Sheriff Coppinger on a message giving description of man and ordering him held till the Gadsden authorities could come and get him.

Ramsay is charged with violating the Mann white slave law and also with the theft of a Chevrolet automobile from Gadsden parties. Arrest was made at instance of Federal authorities.

He had $671 in money on his person, and laughed when asked why he carried so much money, saying he frequently had more than that in his old rags. He also had a .32 calibre Savage automatic pistol on his person, and in the car was a woman's dress. He denied any knowledge of the crimes for which he was arrested. He is described as about 45 years, thin, tall, and sallow complexion.

He is believed to be the same party who applied for board for a few weeks here, applying first at the home of Clay Brewer and later at A. J. Smith's. He was refused board at both places, as they did not want to take in a stranger.

MARION HIGH DEFEATED CAVALRY

Marion High School defeated the Cavalry team in football Saturday, Nov. 27, in a game played in the rain at the Richard City grounds, 37 to 0. The soldiers were outclassed, and the game was called at three-quarter mark.

J. F. Anderson, Payne's Bend, Ala., orders the News sent to him for eight months. He received the News while he was with the A. E. F. in Brest, France, and now that he is safe in the good old U. S. A., wants to continue reading it.

ALUMNI DEFEAT M. H. S. REGULARS

Old Boys Come Out Victorious 12 to 7.

M. H. S. Alumni defeated Marion High School 12 to 7 in a game of football at Richard City Friday evening. It was a hard-fought game, and the alumni demonstrated that they had not forgotten the game.

Neff starred for Marion High and Haskew, Anderson and Westmoreland for the alumni.

Reports from players next morning developed several incapacitated for further duty until they recovered from their injuries. It was not ping-pong game but genuine hard-fought football, the alumni being determined to win and the regulars just as much the opposite.

The line-up was as follows:

M. C. H. S.—

H. Willis, centre.

L. Willis, right end.

Pryor, right tackle.

Cameron, right guard.

Jernigan, quarter back.

Jackson, right half.

Alumni—

L. Wynn, left tackle.

T. Graham, left guard.

Westmoreland, centre.

Patton, right end.

Baumgartner, right tackle.

"D" Graham, quarter back.

Gilliam, right half.

Haskew, full back.

Fine Barn.

A. L. McCullough has completed a fine large barn on his property in South Sequachee, formerly the Bennett place. He has installed in it a hay-loading rig, which has a record of 11 minutes in unloading a big load of hay into the barn. Mr. McCullough is as industrious a farmer as you will find in Marion, and doesn't mind the sweat.

MAN WITH THE FIELD

KATHERINE LINCK BEUTELL,
In the Los Angeles Times

Wrapped in his pride of place, he sits apart
From all his kind; his solitude
Is never fraught with happiness of heart
Nor peace of mind; no tender mood
Of love for fellowmen he ever feels—
No sense of sympathy for human need.
The one great passion that his life reveals
Is an unsatiable, devouring greed.

Throughout this glorious, golden harvest land
His fields are bent with ripened grain;
But all unheard the generous command:
"Of purpose let some sheaves remain!"
Unheeding aught but that which multiplies
His fortune; all intent upon himself,
And on the hope that he may realize
His dream of empire o'er a world of pelf.

No faint desire for that great stewardship
Which might be his; no single thought
Of the poor who smart beneath his whip
Of power. Unloved and never sought
In honest friendship by the men who yield
Him homage for the force he can control;
Great, powerful, rich—the owner of the field
Is but a pauper in his inmost soul.

HURRY UP, LADIES. "UNCLE TOM" WAITS

Editor News:

Well, if a fellow wants anything let him say so thru the News and he'll sure find what he wants.

Some of the women will have to back out or there is going to be about four or five weddings. Well, it is not good for man to be alone, and God has provided plenty of women for us all. So, boys, let us get our share.

No, folks, I was not joking about a wife. A man isn't any account without a wife. Nobody cares for him or pities him, and if he gets sick there is none so ready to nurse him as a wife. We old widowers and bachelors are worthless, all because we act as though we cared for no one and hence no one cares for us.

I have nothing to say against old maids and widows, for they are not to blame like the men. I am not trying to convert the News into a matrimonial paper, but am just writing a few facts about widowers. One man has six children and he wants a wife and needs one. Another has a nice home and he wants a wife. My advice to him is not to break up but keep his home and get a nice woman. Another has two boys and he wants a wife, and there are a host of others who are in the same boat.

I am going to practice what I preach and get a wife if I can. I don't know that I can, but I will try. I feel much encouraged to go on. Now, ladies, don't think I am trifling or that my friends are trifling. Do you want to marry? If so, write me addressing letter Box 286, Tracy City.

UNCLE TOM.

Herbert Wells lost three fingers from his right hand last week, from contact with a saw at the plant of the Sequachee Handle Works near Maxwell, Ala., where he was working. He is now with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs Wells, but it will probably be some time before the injuries heal.

YEAR-OLD PIG; WEIGHT 510

A. L. Roberson, of Jasper, reports the converting into pork of a year-old Red Duroc pig that weighed 510 lbs. That is quick growth in hog meat, but Mr. Roberson knows how to raise them and has found out that quick growth pays. Three cans of lard were secured from the renderings.

Clifty.

Special to the News.

Hold on, Mr. Editor, listen. I have a very serious complaint to make. I have not received the News of this week nor last week. I fear you have left me off your subscription list. If you remember I sent you $1.00 about three weeks ago to be applied on my subscription. You published the letter in which I sent the money and this fact leads me to believe you received the $1. Please send me the News, as I am anxious to get it each week. [Your name is on our lists and we are of the opinion that the paper has been sent.—Ed.]

Hello, "Retired Farmer," let us hear from you more often. "Uncle Joe" is very well acquainted with all the old Red Hill folks and loves to hear from that neighborhood. How is Thompson and all his boys? I guess he is learning his oldest son to weigh coal by this time. I guess "Farmer" has only retired for the winter and will take a new start about ground hog day, Feb. 14.

A number of laborers of the Ransom-Benedict Co. have left since the reduction in wages, and more are going, so I hear. Uncle Joe.

Smallpox at Tracy.

Tracy City, Dec. 5.—There are a number of cases of what is pronounced to be smallpox in town. Mrs. John A. Partin is very ill with the disease, and John Finch's family is suffering with it, also.

Uses Tire Pump and Quill and Saves Cow for Farmer

With a first-aid veterinary kit consisting of a chicken quill and an automobile pump, one of the county agents of the United States Department of Agriculture saved a $200 cow belonging to a farmer in Pender County, N. C.

This farmer had expressed an unfavorable opinion of farmers' cooperative demonstration work, declaring that he would rather use his money for other purposes than in helping to pay the county's portion of the expense. While he was in town he received word that his valuable cow was attacked with milk fever. The county agent went home with him and found the neighbors using primitive methods in treating the animal for "hollow tail" and colic.

Using the chicken quill and the automobile pump, the county agent pumped the cow's udder full of air. In less than two hours she was on her feet. Some simple remedies completed the cure.

The farmer attempted to give the county agent a check for $10, which, of course, was declined. The farmer, however, became a warm supporter of the farm-extension work.

Goodson Kilgore.
